1. INTRODUCTION

- 1.1. Digit Lab Digital Strategy, trading as Digitlab, ("the Company" / "We" / "Us" / "Our") is a private company incorporated in accordance with the company laws of South Africa. We have determined the manner in which information is to be requested under PAIA and POPIA. This PAIA Manual applies to records held by us.

2. DEFINITIONS AND INTERPRETATION

- 2.1. Unless otherwise expressly stated, or the context otherwise requires, the words and expressions listed below shall, when used in this Manual or in any schedules hereto, bear the meanings ascribed to them below and cognate expressions bear corresponding meanings:

2.1.1. "Board" means our Board of Directors serving from time to time;

2.1.2. "Directors" means those persons appointed as executive or non-executive Directors to the Board according to our memorandum of incorporation and the ruling policies and procedures applicable from time to time;

2.1.3. "PAIA" means the Promotion of Access to Information Act 2 of 2000;

2.1.4. "Personal Information" means personal information as defined in POPIA;

2.1.5. "POPIA" means the Protection of Personal Information Act 4 of 2013;

2.1.6. "Records" means any recorded information—

(a) regardless of form or medium, including any of the following:

(i) writing on any material;

(ii) information produced, recorded or stored by means of any tape-recorder, computer equipment, whether hardware or software or both, or other device, and any material subsequently derived from information so produced, recorded or stored;

(iii) label, marking or other writing that identifies or describes anything of which it forms part, or to which it is attached by any means;

(iv) book, map, plan, graph or drawing;

(v) photograph, film, negative, tape or other device in which one or more visual images are embodied to be capable, with or without the aid of some other equipment, of being reproduced;

2.1.7. “this Manual” means this PAIA Manual.

2.2. In this Manual:

2.2.1. table of contents and paragraph headings are for purposes of reference only and shall not be used in interpretation;

2.2.2. unless the context clearly indicates a contrary intention, any word connoting any gender includes the other genders, and the singular includes the plural and vice versa;

2.2.3. When a number of days are prescribed such number shall exclude the first and include the last day unless the last day is not a business day, in which case the last day shall be the next succeeding business day.

9. ACCESS REQUEST PROCEDURES

9.1. Request for Official Information

- 9.1.1. Requests for our official information should be addressed in writing to our Information Officer at an address in paragraph 3 above.
- 9.1.2. Requests should be made using the prescribed PAIA Form C attached hereto, and include the reason why the information is sought. The form is also available from the website of the Human Rights Commission, or the website of the Department of Justice and Constitutional Development at www.doj.gov.za.
- 9.1.3. If a request is refused, the applicant will be told the reason for the refusal.
- 9.1.4. A request must be answered within thirty (30) days after the request has been received.
- 9.1.5. A requestor may ask that the request be treated as urgent, but reasons should be provided for seeking urgency.
- 9.1.6. The time limit for answering requests can be extended in some cases, but the applicant will be advised of the refusal and the reasons for it. For example, an extension may be required where:
 - 9.1.6.1. the request is for a large number of records;

- 9.1.6.2. the search for the records is to be conducted at premises not situated in the same town or city as our head office;
- 9.1.6.3. consultation among our divisions or departments, as the case may be, is required;
- 9.1.6.4. the parties agree in any manner to such an extension.
- 9.1.6.5. Most requests will be answered without a charge but should we incur any costs in retrieving the information or have to make photocopies, a nominal fee will be charged which fee will be determined by the Board.
- 9.1.7. We will endeavour to provide the information in the form requested, unless to do so will impair efficient administration, be contrary to a legal duty or prejudice the interests that are protected by withholding for example:
 - 9.1.7.1. reasonable opportunity to inspect the document;
 - 9.1.7.2. provide a copy of the document;
 - 9.1.7.3. making arrangements for the person to hear or view any relevant sounds or images;
 - 9.1.7.4. transcript, excerpt, summary or oral information concerning words recorded or in a document; or
 - 9.1.7.5. provide with deletions or alterations as are necessary to protect the interests protected by withholding grounds.
- 9.1.8. If the head of the Company or the Information Officer fails to respond within thirty days after a request has been received, the request is deemed to be refused in terms of section 58 read together with section 56(1) of PAIA.
- 9.1.9. The requester may lodge an appeal with a court of competent jurisdiction against any extension or any procedure set out in this section.

10. PREScribed FEES: SECTION 51(1)(f)

- 10.1. The requestor must pay the non-refundable, prescribed request fee of R50.00 (Fifty Rand) to be submitted together with the completed Form C to the Company. Should the request for access to information be approved, further fees will be payable per the provisions of PAIA and these fees will be made known to the requester by the Information Officer. An itemised fee structure can be obtained on the SAHRC website, <https://www.sahrc.org.za>, and a copy thereof is attached hereto.

10.2. Access to information, if approved, will only be provided once all the prescribed fees have been paid.

10.3. In terms of POPIA, a data subject has the right to request the Company to confirm, free of charge, whether or not it holds personal information about the data subject.

11. REASONS FOR REFUSAL

11.1. We may neither confirm nor deny the existence or non-existence of the information requested to protect an interest identified as a conclusive reason to withhold information or to protect trade secrets or the commercial position of the person who supplied the information or is the subject of the information.

11.2. We may also refuse to provide information if:

11.2.1. the making available of the information would be contrary to the provisions of specific legislation;

11.2.2. the information requested is or will soon be publicly available;

11.2.3. the document alleged to contain the information requested does not exist or cannot be found;

11.2.4. the information requested is not held and the person dealing with the request has no grounds for believing that the information is either held or more closely connected with our functions;

11.2.5. the request is frivolous or vexatious or that the information requested is trivial;

11.2.6. the information contains protected copyright;

11.2.7. disclosure of the information would involve the unreasonable disclosure of personal information or special personal information in terms of POPIA (privacy); and/or 11.2.8. the information is confidential or protected by privilege.

12. GOOD REASONS FOR WITHHOLDING INFORMATION

12.1. Information may be withheld where:

- 12.1.1. the giving might prejudice our security or our shareholder or customer relations;
- 12.1.2. the giving of the information might endanger an employee or shareholder or customer's safety;
- 12.1.3. to protect the privacy of natural persons who may be third parties, employees or shareholders or customers;
- 12.1.4. to protect our trade secrets or the commercial position or the person who supplied or who is the subject of the information;
- 12.1.5. to protect the confidential information which, if released, would prejudice the supply of such similar information or damage the public interest;
- 12.1.6. to protect our substantial economic interests; or
- 12.1.7. where information is protected by legal or litigation privilege.

NOTE: It is important to note that access is not automatic. An application for access to information can be refused at the reasonable discretion of the Information Officer, including but not limited to the reasons in this Manual and if the application does not comply with the procedural requirements. If it is reasonably suspected that the requester has obtained access to the records through the submission of materially false or misleading information, legal proceedings may be instituted against such requester.

13. INFORMATION OR RECORDS NOT FOUND

- 13.1. If all reasonable steps have been taken to find a record, and such a record cannot be found or if the records do not exist, then the head of the Company or the request liaison officer shall notify the requester, by way of an affidavit or affirmation, that it is not possible to give access to the requested record. This notice shall be considered as a deemed refusal for purposes of PAIA.
- 13.2. The affidavit or affirmation shall provide a full account of all the steps taken to find the record or to determine its existence.

- 13.3. If the record in question should later be found, the requester shall be given access to the record in the manner stipulated by the requester in the prescribed form unless access is refused.

14. INFORMATION REQUESTED ABOUT A THIRD PARTY

- 14.1. Section 71 of PAIA makes provision for a request for information or records about a third party.
- 14.2. When considering such requests, we will adhere to the provisions of sections 71 to 74 of PAIA.
- 14.3. In certain circumstances, we may be obliged in terms of PAIA to advise third parties of such requests lodged, and the relevant third party(ies) may be entitled to dispute the decision by the Information Officer by referring the matter to a competent court of law.

15. RECORD OF PROCESSING ACTIVITIES

- 15.1. Following POPIA, we maintain a detailed record of our processing activities as part of our internal data register.

16. CATEGORIES OF DATA SUBJECTS

- 16.1. We hold information and records on the following categories of data subjects:
- Our employees;
 - Family members of employees, including children where permitted;
 - Our clients (including potential and previous clients);
 - Our suppliers and service providers;
 - Our shareholders and directors ;
 - Our visitors.
- 16.2. In terms of POPIA, Personal Information must be processed for a specified purpose. The purpose for which Personal Information is processed by us will depend on the nature of the Personal Information and the particular data subject. We maintain separate privacy notices that incorporate the purposes for processing. These notices are made available on our website or directly to the data subject. However, our typical purposes are summarised below and are non-exhaustive.

Purpose of processing

16.2.1. Employee's Personal Information

We process our employees' (including prospective, existing and previous) Personal Information for business administration purposes. For example, training, payroll and leave management. Employee Personal Information is also processed to the extent required by legislation. For example, we disclose our employees' financial information to the Commissioner for the South African Revenue Service, in terms of the Income Tax Act 58 of 1962 and certain special personal information in terms of the Employment Equity Act 55 of 1998.

16.2.2. Clients' Personal Information

We process client (including potential and previous clients) related records as an integral part of its commercial services. For example, we process client-related records during the client application process, and for us to perform our obligations in terms of its relevant client service level agreement. We may also process Personal Information provided to it by credit bureaus or industry regulatory bodies where permitted by law.

16.2.3. Suppliers' and service providers' Personal Information

We process supplier and service provider related Personal Information to perform our obligations in terms of its relevant service level agreements, including to make payment, and to comply with its legal obligations in terms of the Financial Intelligence Centre Act 38 of 2001 and Companies Act 71 of 2008, among others.

17. RECIPIENTS TO WHOM PERSONAL INFORMATION MAY BE SUPPLIED

17.1. We may share the Personal Information of its data subjects, where legally justified to do so, for any of the purposes outlined in its privacy notices, with the following parties (among others):

17.1.1. Our service providers, operators (suppliers and third parties) that perform services on its behalf.

17.1.2. We do not share Personal Information with any third parties, except if:

- it is obliged to provide such information for legal or regulatory purposes;
- it is required to do so for purposes of existing or future legal proceedings;
- it is selling one or more of its businesses or part of its businesses to a third party to whom it may transfer its rights under any agreement it may have with data subjects;
- it is involved in the prevention of fraud, loss, bribery or corruption;
- the third party performs services and processes Personal Information on our behalf as its operator;
- this is required to provide or manage any information, products and/or services to data subjects;
- or this is needed to help us improve the quality of its products and services.

17.2. We will send its data subjects appropriate notifications or communications of its processing if it is obliged to do so by law, or in terms of its contractual relationship with such data subjects.

17.3. We will only disclose Personal Information to government authorities if it is required to do so by law.

17.4. Our employees and suppliers are required to adhere to legislation relating to privacy and confidentiality principles, and to complete privacy training.

18. CROSS-BORDER FLOW OF INFORMATION

18.1. We will only transfer Personal Information outside of South Africa if the relevant transactions or situation requires cross-border processing. It will only do so in accordance with South African legislative requirements, or if the data subject consents to the transfer of their Personal Information to third parties in foreign countries.

18.2. We will also take steps to ensure that operators (suppliers and third parties) in foreign countries are bound by laws, binding corporate rules or binding agreements that provide an adequate level of protection of Personal Information in terms of POPIA, unless otherwise permitted by Section 72(1) of POPIA.

19. OBJECTION TO THE PROCESSING OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

19.1. You may, at any time object to the Processing of your Personal Information in the prescribed form attached as Annexure 3 to this Manual. However, we may be lawfully entitled to continue processing your personal information in the limited circumstances permitted by POPIA, including where such processing is required by law, protects a legitimate interest or is required to perform our obligations in terms of a contract with you.

20. REQUEST FOR CORRECTION OR DELETION OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

20.1. Subject to the exceptions already stated in 19.1 above, you may request for your Personal Information to be corrected/deleted in the prescribed form attached to this Manual as Annexure 4.

21. GENERAL DESCRIPTION OF INFORMATION SECURITY MEASURES

21.1. We use technical and organisational measures detailed in our data protection policies to ensure the confidentiality, integrity and protection of the Personal Information under our control.

21.2. These measures include, among others:

- 21.2.1. physical access control;
- 21.2.2. firewalls;
- 21.2.3. secure networks;
- 21.2.4. virus protection software and update protocols;
- 21.2.5. backup protocols;
- 21.2.6. multi-factor authentication,
- 21.2.7. organisational measures and training; and
- 21.2.8. any outsourced service providers who process personal information on behalf of the Company are contracted to implement appropriate security controls.

22. DESCRIPTION OF REMEDIES AVAILABLE IN RESPECT OF AN ACT OR FAILURE TO ACT BY THE COMPANY

22.1. If we refuse a request for information in terms of PAIA, the requester may, within 60 days, in the prescribed form and against payment of the prescribed appeal fee, lodge an internal appeal against the decision of the Information Officer in accordance with the provisions of section 75 of PAIA.
